July 2022

From your Directors...

While the weather started out a bit chancy, the rain actually stayed away and a great time was had at our June 12th Strawberry Social held at the Charvet's beautiful horse ranch in Forest Grove. 25-30 members came along for a wonderful day! John and Margy Imlay led a brief tour out to the Charvet Estate. A big thanks to Tamera Krajeski and her sister for preparing the strawberries and Robert Douglas for providing and serving the ice cream.

Our next regular meeting will be this Thursday, July 7th, at Ernesto's Italian Restaurant, 8544 S.W. Apple Way, Portland, Or 97225. Dinner at 6:00 pm and meeting starts at 7:00 pm.

We have two short programs this month. Joe Munsch will talk about the Hagerty Insurance Program, and David Charvet will give us a presentation on the CCCA Grand Experience at Hickory Corners, Michigan.

Paul and Sharon Lawson have graciously agreed to do our program for August!

We hope everyone has recovered from your 4th of July celebrations – the weather could not have been better! Hopefully, you were lucky enough to attend the annual 4th of July get-together at Monte and Elaine Glud's place out in Dundee. The setting is wonderful and the Glud's really work their butts off to put this event on each year. Several Packards were in attendance and Chris Cataldo even washed his! Thanks Monte and Elaine!

Rotary
Club of Forest Grove

July 17th, the Forest Grove Concours d'Elegance on the campus of Pacific University. This is the premier judged car event in the region, and both the Packard Club and Classic Car Club have sponsored trophies. We hope you are able to show your car and attend the event. The event is sponsored by the Forest Grove Rotary Club, and the proceeds go to very good causes. A separate flyer was previously sent and a link to their site is below.
